

While you were out on the seas...

*...Provimar has changed its name
to EMS Ship Supply*

*We are not the same company any more.
We are much better!*

As EMS Ship Supply, the world leading company in this market, we have added body and muscle to the skill and dedication that has always been the hallmark of Provimar.

It now forms part of EMS Ship Supply, a truly global organization, that offers a highly specialized service, with deep know-how of the reality of each port they are present (60 offices in 17 countries).

This fact, together with state-of-the-art logistics and a purchase capacity that enables improving the quality of the goods sold, is what makes EMS Ship Supply special.
